

Dear Church Family

Thursday 25th June

New government guidance

Each week brings changes to government guidelines on group gatherings. These past few days are no different with many more public buildings and social facilities opening up from the 4th July. We are not planning to resume normal services at this stage but be assured we will be reviewing the situation carefully at our next leadership meeting. In the meantime we are open to the possibility of individual prayer sessions within the facilities. If this is something that you would welcome and appreciate please let us know by email.

We will of course be continuing our very popular online magazine style service....

HBCC Online

Our next online service will be available this Sunday from 10:30 onwards....

All services can be found on the HBCC Facebook page and some are also on YouTube.

Bibleproject.com

If you've not yet discovered this tremendous online resource...do yourself a huge favour and check it out this week. There is a whole chocolate box full of goodies to explore but can I particularly encourage you to work through the material on how to read the Bible. This stuff is dynamite and will really help you get to grips with the number one bestseller in the world!

Mid-week Reflection

On the hbcc family Facebook page there is a short, encouraging devotional talk each week. This is usually posted on a Wednesday morning. Many thanks to all those who've contributed so far.

Coffee and Zoom Catchup

You don't have to be a tech genius to join us for this.....Stu Taylor has posted a link to a video and instructions on our family Facebook page if you're a little unsure as to what to do !

The usual Zoom 'catchup' for anyone who'd like to connect with others is live after the service on Sunday; this will start at 11:00 - or when the service finishes if that is later. Details will appear on HBCC Family Facebook.

Anyone is welcome to join in and leave as and when you feel comfortable.

Stories, News and Celebrations

If you have some news, a story or if you would like us to share special birthdays, anniversaries or occurrences in our weekly bulletin.... send details to the church email address at hbccentre@tiscali.co.uk

Giving

There are still ongoing expenses as a church community even during lockdown. Many of you give regularly and very faithfully and we're so grateful for your continued support. If anyone would like to make any one-off gifts you can do this through online banking.
